Q: Describe the volunteer housing?

A: Volunteers at Clear Lake Presbyterian Church are housed in two large rooms, one for males and one for females. Showers and bathrooms are nearby. There is a very nice gathering area with a large screen TV and games. The kitchen and dining area are located on the first floor. We can house 25 volunteers at Clear Lake (presently online).

B: Volunteers at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church will be housed in two bunkhouse trailers loaned to us by Orphan Grain Train (OGT). Showers, bathrooms, entertainment and a small eating area are close by in the gym. Meals will be served in the eating area or a larger area depending on size. We'll be able to accept volunteer teams at Gloria Dei in November.

C: Note: our goal is to fill our bunks to capacity, so depending on the size of your team, you may have the opportunity to get to know another group of equally passionate volunteers.

Q: How much is the registration fee?

A: Our church partners are providing free room and board to the volunteers. The registration fee ($100) is used to cover miscellaneous volunteer expenses as well as construction expenses. Checks should be written to Fuller Center Disaster ReBuilders.

A: Plan to sleep on a cot with a mattress, so bring a sleeping bag or linens. We have pillows. Bring your own towel.

A: Our church hosts are providing dinner Sunday night through Friday dinner except for Wednesday night. We look at Wednesday night as your opportunity to sample the local cuisine. Each weekday, we also provide a cold breakfast, bag lunch (self-prepared).

In order to maintain compliance with the City of Houston, only currently Certified City of Houston Food Service Managers may have full access to the Clear Lake kitchen. When there is not a certified food service manager present, teams will be limited to the outer kitchen. Volunteers are expected to support the cooks as required.
