“A mind that is stretched by a new experience can never go back to its old dimensions.” – Oliver Wendell Holmes

Being a Team Leader is one of my favorite things in the world, and I cannot begin to tell you how much it means to me to share these experiences with you. I have been blessed to be part of volunteer trips as a team member and leader to Alaska, Peru, Moloka'i, India, Montana, Egypt, Mozambique, Nepal, Thailand, New Mexico as well as working with disaster relief at Camp Hope in New Orleans ten years ago and the Cheyenne River Reservation in Eagle Butte, South Dakota. Currently, I am working as a public school teacher with English Language Learners. Choosing this field is a direct result of my experiences out in the world with organizations such as Fuller Center for Housing. The progress the affiliate and its homeowners are making in eradicating poverty housing is inspirational – you will love being in that vibrant community!

I'd like this trip to be dedicated to all of those women whose lives have changed because of decent, affordable housing.

In combination with this trip, I will be leading a trip to India the week after. I would love to have some participants do both trips with me. It is a great opportunity to help in both of these countries. Make sure to take a look at that trip too!
