Kriedeman Home Dedication

Thanks to everyone who made my house dedication a huge success.

A special thanks to Pastor Carey Schram, who delivered a wonderful message and a glorious blessing on my new home.

Thank you to the Silver Valley Stitchers, Osburn Baptist Church congregation, Marie Carver, Bob and Ruth Larson, and Celia Ruff for the wonderful gifts and delicious refreshments.

Last but not least, thank you to everyone with the Fuller Center for making my dream of being a homeowner a reality.

God Bless Everyone!!!

Grand Opening of the Fuller Center's "ReUse" Store—October 14

By Barb Fisher

When I arrived at the store that morning and opened the door, I could feel the excitement in the air!! The day was filled with excitement!

I sat down near the door and welcomed guests who arrived. There was a constant opening and closing of the door. Some people looked all over the store to see what was available to buy. Other people took a quick look and left. There were several that come in and went out several times. There were even some people who came in with donations.

When there was a slight lull, I took a quick "tour" of the store. I had never been there before. When I heard about the "ReUse" Store, I thought it would be filled with tools and equipment for building. Was I SURPRISED as I walked around to find the store was filled with a wide variety of things like light bulbs, dinnerware, sofas, mirrors, books, toys—even an artificial Christmas tree and numerous other things—a wide variety.

The Board of Directors and the volunteers present were waiting for the ribbon cutting ceremony which would be held at noon. Colleen Rosson of the Greater Silver Valley Chamber of Commerce had a beautiful pair of scissors—not just the kind you have at home, but scissors that were "giant sized"! As the ribbon came apart, marking the official opening of the "ReUse" Store, there was clapping, cheering, yelling, and excited talking. The "ReUse" Store is now officially an official Fuller store!

With help from Don Ashcraft and Jack Best, Verne carefully unloads a very heavy pellet stove donated by Angela Lautzenheiser. Other photos by Judy

Our youth workers, Hope Turner, Heather Barker, Ian McNutt, and helper, Serenhey White, dig a drain ditch along the back of the ReUse Store.

We are delighted with the warm response we have received for our efforts.

Volunteers, Jack Best & Mark Green, feed insulation to the hopper while Verne shoots it above the ceiling at the rear of the ReUse Store. In addition to selling the donated items, cleaning, & pricing at the front, work is progressing on some remodeling of the building, such as insulating, making drain ditches, installing a utility sink inside where it is warm ☺ (thanks, Jeff Simonson & Kevin & Adam Hutchings), sorting & sometimes fixing the new donations in the shop/staging area at the back. Also, time & energy is spent collecting donations. Our thanks go to Gary Moore & Jerry Brantz and to Bob Campbell for their services as gleaners with their pickups.

We cannot possibly function without all the volunteers who usually come on a regularly and also those who drop in to help: Jeff Simonson, Joyce Lavergne, Destiny Hutchings, Joyce Moore, Jerry Nickerson & others who happen to be handy. If you can help, please let us know—it would be great to have a regular schedule set up!

Verne spent his 73 birthday working on wiring in the garage at the Kriedeman home. We do not build garages for our “simple, decent homes”, but this came with the remodel house. In addition to organizing & working at the ReUse Store and serving as Treasurer and Bookkeeper for Silver Valley Fuller Center for Housing, he is the overall construction supervisor & electrician for the housing efforts. He needs help!!—with the electrical wiring, supervising repairs to the ReUse Store (especially since we are expecting more youth helpers), and an assistant bookkeeper who is QuickBooks literate.
