

PARTNERSHIP COVENANT

Student Builders covenant between

(name of school)

and

The Fuller Center for Housing

PREFACE

The Fuller Center for Housing and its Covenant Partners are an international coalition of like-minded organizations and individuals dedicated to the elimination of poverty housing by various means, including the building and rehabilitation of houses and other shelter for people in need. While a connection with The Fuller Center is of great help to local organizations in terms of name recognition, collaboration and sharing, the real work takes place at the local level, so it is at the local level that decisions must be made, funds raised, volunteers mobilized, families selected and nurtured, and houses built or rehabilitated.

The Student Builders will partner with these local groups, using the unique resources, talents, enthusiasm, and ideas students have. Student Builders “Build on the Rock!” because we believe showing true faith in Jesus is turning his love into action (Matthew 7).

Therefore, Fuller Center Student Builders build...

1. Each other up in Christ.

Building more than houses, we build up our partner families, each other, and our communities in the love of Christ.

2. Support.

Raising money, speaking with local leaders, recruiting volunteers, and garnering gifts-in-kind.

3. Homes.

Volunteering on local worksites or traveling to work on a project elsewhere in the U.S. or abroad.

4. Awareness.

Getting the word out about the enormous need and all the ways people can help.

Together we will make decent shelter a matter of conscience and action with people everywhere.

This Covenant identifies our common values as expressed in our Mission Statement, Method of Operation and Foundational Principles.

MISION STATEMENT

The Fuller Center for Housing, faith driven and Christ centered, promotes collaborative and innovative partnerships with individuals and organizations in an unrelenting quest to provide adequate shelter for all people in need worldwide.

METHOD OF OPERATION

The Fuller Center promotes the development of housing and homeownership by building and rehabilitating modest, adequate homes. The Fuller Center seeks to work with other organizations whose purposes are consistent with those of The Fuller Center for Housing and its Covenant Partners.

FOUNDATIONAL PRINCIPLES

- 1- The Fuller Center seeks to demonstrate the love and teachings of Jesus Christ to all people. While The Fuller Center is a Christian organization, it invites and welcomes volunteers, donors and others who are actively committed to The Fuller Center’s Mission, Method of Operation and Principles.
- 2- The Fuller Center is committed to the development and uplifting of families and communities, not just the construction and rehabilitation of houses.
- 3- The Fuller Center and Covenant Partners build, renovate and repair simple, decent and affordable houses with people who are living in conditions that are inadequate and who are unable to secure decent housing by conventional means.
- 4- The Fuller Center selects homeowner families according to criteria that do not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, or ethnic background. All homeowners contribute “sweat equity,” meaning that they work hand-in-hand with the Covenant Partner and its volunteers to build or renovate their home.
- 5- The Fuller Center sells houses to selected families on terms they can afford, with no profit or interest charged. House payments are used for the construction or renovation of additional homes.
- 6- The Fuller Center is a global partnership. In recognition of and commitment to that global partnership each group of Student Builders is asked to contribute at least 10 percent of its cash contributions to The Fuller Center’s international work.
- 7- The Fuller Center accepts and greatly appreciates government help in acquiring land or installing infrastructure, but we do not accept government funds house building.
- 8- The Fuller Center supports the Greater Blessing Program, which encourages beneficiaries of lower-cost home repairs or renovations to repay that cost over time on terms they can afford, but without a loan agreement. Gift “payments” are made monthly, providing the beneficiary the opportunity of receiving the greater blessing of giving, not just receiving.
