

Student Builders Mission Partner Application

Future Fuller Center Student Builders Mission Partner,

Hello and thank you for your interest in partnering with The Fuller Center for Housing! We are so pleased and excited about the impact we believe we can make together.

Please help us ensure we have all the contact information we will need for your group, and please complete and sign the mission partner affirmation declaration. Let us know if you have any questions, concerns, or ideas!

As we move forward, remember to let us know the status, successes, and struggles of your efforts. We are here to help and serve you so that you can help and serve one another – and we would like to share the joy of your successes with others! Remember that we are in this together.

As 1 John 3:18 says, “Let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth.” Thanks again for all you are doing to put love into action by furthering our shared goal of eliminating poverty housing worldwide!

In partnership,
Ryan Iafigliola

Director of Special Programs
